

Commissioner Christine Dauphin Ferguson

Christine is currently employed as a manager on contract for the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). She holds an Associate degree in Computer Science/Business from Montgomery College and later returned to school as an adult and received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration (Acquisition and Contract Management Concentration) from Strayer University.

At the age of 15, Christine migrated to the U.S. as an emancipated minor from Puerto Rico. Her successes in life were attributed to her determination to survive and strong common sense. She often had wished that she had have a good mentor to help her overcome life's difficulties instead of learning life lessons through series of trial and error. She strongly believes in the power of women and the natural survivor ability that women possess. She also believes that mentoring can have a great impact on future generations.

Her passion for the empowerment of women has lead her to her involvement with the Woman to Woman mentoring program, where she is currently serving her second term and the FCCFW. She has joined FCCFW in hopes to further make a difference in a women's lives.

Christine currently resides in Frederick with her two daughters, Alexandra and Andrea Ferguson.
